MYRTLE BOAT CLUB TAKES MAJOR SHARE OF PEARL HARBOR HONORS

Well-Fought Races Please Big Crowd, With Honolulu and Healanis Nearly Tie

RESULTS IN BRIEF.

Myrtle—Three firsts, four seconds; 27 points.
Healanis—Two firsts, one second, three thirds; 16 points.
Honolulu—Two firsts, one second, one third; 14 points.

(By GEORGE LEAL)

With 2000 people looking on at Pearl City yesterday, the crews of the Myrtle, Honolulu and Healanis boat clubs battled for honors on the water. The majority of the crowd journeyed to the scene on the special O. R. & N. train of 15 cars, while 200 automobiles carried some of the fans to the out-of-town celebration.

Garment bookers for the first races on the program took the 9:15 train on Pearl City, and the crowd followed 15 minutes later. The boats and equipment of the clubs went down on one of the harbor barges at 7 o'clock Monday night and the workmen had everything ready at 5 in the morning.

Myrtle Boat Club carried off the honors of the day, Healanis a little better than tied Honolulu for second place, and the latter club surprised the crowd by finishing first in the Class B barge race. So keen and hotly-contested were the races that the onlookers pronounced them among the best ever seen here.

First Race Stars Promptly.
At 10:30 sharp the judges called the Class A barge armament out to their course, and 10 minutes later the race had started. It began from a point off Whitney's point to Banning's point and return to the railroad wharf. In all the course was a little over a mile and a quarter.

The course started about half a mile from the dancing pavilion toward town, went another half-mile beyond the pavilion toward Ewa, and back again to the Railroad wharf, just 75 yards Walkiki of the pavilion. Great difficulty was encountered in lining up the boats for the start as the wind was blowing from the ocean.

At the pistol's "bang" the crews started off evenly. After the 100-yard dash about 100 yards Healanis was leading, and led until just before point of turning. The other two crews turned first. Fate allowed Myrtle to make a first-class turn and Honolulu the next best. Owing to the rather clumsy boat of the Healanis they made a slow turn. They were beaten by 11 boat lengths at the finish. Honolulu and Myrtle were close on the homeward stretch, and in fact the former crew was half a length ahead.

Myrtle gradually crept up, and in the last 10 strokes beat their opponents by a fourth of a boat length. The time was 5 minutes 29 2-5 seconds. Alert vs. Navajo.

The next race, between the U. S. S. Alert and the U. S. S. Navajo crews in naval cutters from a point off Ford island to the Railroad wharf, finished close. The Alert, coarsened copped the honors in this event and made it in the fast time of 3 minutes 1 1-5 seconds.

Duke a Winner.
With the announcement of the following race, the Class A scull, Duke P. Kahanamoku rowed out to the starting point followed by Bob Fuller. In their return the same story was told. This race contained two aquatic champions, Duke the swimmer and Bob Fuller, champion island diver. The battle of champions was victorious for the swimmer, he winning the race only in the last few strokes. From a point off Banning's point to the Railroad wharf he made it in the fast time of 1 minute and 44 seconds.

Honolulu Score Here.
Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club pulled one over on the Healanis and Myrtles in the intermediate six-oared sliding-seat barge. Class B event, and breasted the tape over the Class A course stated above in 5 minutes, 33 4-5 seconds, just 4 minutes and 2 seconds behind that of the big crews. They took the lead at the start and kept it all the way.

Speed Boats Show Paces.
Harold Dillingham's speedy new motor-boat followed by that of E. Magoon exhibited around the harbor over a course of two and a half miles, and record-breaking speed was recorded, 9 minutes 4 seconds and 2-5.

After this race an hour was given up to lunch, and all sat beneath the shades of the keawe trees, and ate and drank heartily to the luck of the various crews.

Class A, Pair-Oars.
At 1:30 the judges called out the class A pair-oars rowers and Duke, with his partner, George Chillingworth, came home the winners. They were the favorites in this event and they proved themselves worthy by finishing with a big lead. This made the third race that Duke had entered, and he won every one he had entered. Myrtle had a big lead all the way, and finished in a similar fashion. The time for this race was 2 minutes 12 seconds and 1-5. Healanis and Honolulu finished a dead-heat second.

Event No. 7 was the Class B scull, the course being the same as the one Duke and Bob Fuller had raced over. Francis Bowers, a brand new contender in the racing game, brought home the bacon, and surprised everybody. He was on the inside course, close to the people, and everyone was watching the Healanis and Myrtle boats, while he crept along on his course. The fans were cheering the other two boys, and while they still were fighting it out at the finish, the pistol shot was heard, and Bowers stopped rowing. He was the winner with Myrtle second and Healanis third. Time, 1 minute 52 seconds flat. The course was similar to that of the class A scull race.

Elbe and White to Front.
During all this time the Blue and White had not won an event. Their kid crew was pretty lively during the day, and the members noticed it. They had a royal send off; three rousing cheers echoed from a hundred voices and three more rousing cheers echoed from 500 voices at the end of the race. At the start, Frank Cunha, rowing No. 5 for the Healanis, broke his foot catch, and the boat was returned for fixtures. They journeyed out again and when the crews returned Healanis was just two yards ahead of the Myrtles. It was a dead heat most of the way, but in the last 10 strokes Healanis nosed out ahead. The time was 2 minutes and 2 seconds.

The course was to the point off Banning's point to the railroad wharf, or about three-quarters of a mile. The Honolulu had no entry in this event.

Another Healanis Victory.
This time the spirit of the Healanis, and after Frank Cunha had rested a few minutes, he jumped into a pair-oar boat with Bill Hollinger, and at the finish of the race added another victory to the Blue and White books. Honolulu was second, and Myrtle third. The crews rowed over the same course as the sculls did.

Every pair-oar and scull race was over a three-quarter-mile course.

Hayward Wright, weight 67 pounds, "cooked" the Healanis crews, except that of the sculls. This is the first year he has done this kind of work, and Charley Brown, coach, said he was excellent. He expects "the kid" to do much better work on Regatta Day. Wicks steered the Myrtles, Lloyd Conkling, the Honolulu crews in the barge races; Mopley Holt coxed the Honolulu pair-oar boats.

During the day dancing took place in the pavilion and the crowd enjoyed themselves between the events. Not since 1906 have any boat races been held at Pearl City, and the boys who pulled yesterday declared they like the place better than the harbor.

CRAFTON DEFEATS SANTA CLARA TEAM BY REMARKABLE PLAYING

25th Inf. Star Makes Single, Double and Homer; Robs Missions By Catch

Score, 8 to 6.
Another thriller was staged at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon when the 25th Infantry met and defeated the Santa Clara. The two teams kept up the pace set in the four preceding games of the Santa Clara series and as a consequence the baseball-hungry fans were served with more sensational baseball.

The Santa Clara nine has made a reputation for being able to come up from behind and put on ninth inning batting rallies that would ordinarily win ball games but the local boys are always right on the job to snuff out any such uprisings.

The 25th got away to a good start by getting five big runs in the third inning and in the next stanza a pair, making the count 7 to 0. Santa Clara secured one in the 5th and two in the 6th. In the "lucky seventh" Crafton poked out a homer, and not to be outdone, Preciado duplicated with a drive over the left-field barricade.

Crafton Star.
In the ninth the Californians added two more to their fast-growing collection. With Gay on third, Louis Milburn cracked out a liner between left and center that looked good to tie the count, but Crafton, who was on his way at the crack of the bat, headed off the horsehide and executed a wonderful running one-hand catch such as only Crafton can get away with. Old fans say that the play has never been equaled on local diamonds. Those who witnessed the performance are perfectly willing to believe it.

Gay Pitches Well.
Roy Bliss, the young southpaw, got away to a poor start, having a world of stuff on the ball but seeming unable to make his slants behave. He was therefore sent to the shower and "Pinkie" Leonard was called upon to stem the tide. "Pinkie" pitched to just seven men while four tallies were trickling over the pan. At this juncture Capt. Gay entered the box, Preciado took to short and Manager Joe Aureocoches himself taking charge of the keystone position.

was not generally known among the local fans that Gay is a pitcher, but he is, nevertheless, in the six innings that he worked, the Infantry men secured but two singles and a homer off his delivery.

BOXING PLEAS - SCHOFIELD FANS

fourth, and brought the bout to an end.

Other Features.
Besides the boxing there were two other features on the program. A wrestling match between Master Arthur Brinley, weight 58 pounds, and Master Thomas Walsh, weight 50 pounds, was won by young Brinley in one minute and 15 seconds. This afforded considerable amusement, as did also a bicycle race on a home-made roller, which registered the mileage on a large dial.

Chaplain Fealy in Charge.
The entertainment was under charge of Chaplain Ignatius Fealy, 1st Field Artillery, and like all other entertainments in which Chaplain Fealy has had a hand it was a big success, and a bit of rippling sunshine in a monotonous garrison life.

By no means the least entertaining feature of the afternoon was the excellent music furnished by the 1st Field Artillery band.

The last boxing bout was refereed by Sgt. Hagler, former heavyweight champion of the 25th Infantry. The referee for the other bouts was Lieut. Robert Seale, 1st Infantry.

Summary—Home runs, Preciado, Crafton; two-base hits, Hall, O'Neil, Crafton; stolen bases, O'Neil; double plays, Gay to Wilson, Preciado to Aureocoches to Wilson; hit by pitcher, Swinton (2); hits, off Bliss in 2-3 innings 3, off Leonard in 2-3 innings 3, off Gay in 6 innings 3, off Waterhouse in 5 innings 3, off Jasper in 4 innings 5; bases on balls, off Bliss 2, off Leonard 1, off Waterhouse 1, off Jasper 3; struck out, by Bliss 2, by Gay 3, by Waterhouse 3, by Jasper 1; wild pitches, Bliss 2, Umpire, Stayton and Argabrite. Time of game, 2 hours and 3 minutes.

The Santa Clara boys are not quitters. Yesterday, with the score 7 to 0 against them, they were right there with the old enthusiasm and pepper for which they are noted. They are all firm believers in the old saying, "A ball game is never over until the last man is called out."

MILLS COLLEGE OAKLAND, California

The high quality of the work done at Mills College is indicated by the fact that undergraduates transfer to the University of California and Stanford with out loss of status, their credits being accepted at full unit value. There have been students among those transferred to Stanford who have been appointed to assistantships and readerships before securing their bachelor's degree, as well as during their year of graduate work. Typical instances are: Celeste Young, reader in history; Josephine Cressy, assistant in German; Rachel King, assistant in mathematics.

Graduates of Mills College secure their second degree and their teacher's certificate at the University of California in one year. Dora Lenson, B. S., Mills 1913, M. S., California 1914, is an instructor in biology in the Fresno Normal School; Joyce Lobner, B. L., Mills 1913, M. L., California 1914, is English in the Auburn Junior College. Farther afield, Mills College graduates have distinguished themselves as holders of scholarships and fellowships: Charlotte D'Evelyn, Mills 1911, Graduate Scholar in English at Bryn Mawr 1913-1915, and Mary E. Carritt, European Fellow at Oxford 1915-1916; Florence Harper, Mills 1913, Graduate Scholar in Romance Languages at Bryn Mawr 1914-1916; Hope Lobner, Mills 1915, Graduate Scholar in History at Radcliffe 1915-1916; Inez Netter, (Signed)

California Branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, feeling added interest and pride in Mills College because of the appointment of one of its members, Aurelia Henry Reinhardt (A. B., Cal., Ph. D., Yale), to the presidency, desires to call attention to the high standard of scholarship of this college, which promises to offer to the Pacific Coast the same opportunities furnished by the well-known colleges for women of the Atlantic States.

As the Association of Collegiate Alumnae was founded, in part, for "the publication of information concerning education and in general for the maintenance of high standards of education," the Educational Committee of the California Branch helps to fulfill this purpose by presenting the enclosed facts about Mills College.
